

Checklist for Review of Conditional Use Permits

Overview. Conditional uses are assumed to be generally compatible with other land uses permitted in the zoning district in which the conditional use is proposed, but due to their unique characteristics or potential impacts on the surrounding areas or the county as a whole, individual consideration of their location, design, configuration and/or operation at the proposed location is required. Specific conditions may be attached to a conditional use permit application in order to ensure conformance with the zoning district, other county ordinances or to address the project's impacts to the surrounding area.
